Recycling and composting almost 87 million tons of material in 2011 saved more than 1.1 quadrillion Btu of energy, the equivalent of nearly 190,000 barrels of crude oil.